Mermaids Links:

Here are links to mermaid books and essays. There is the original "traits of mermaid women" which a lot of women found on line and wrote me about in response to reading it.

Also a kind of online class notes with videos and links on the water element. a book of essays on the four elements which contains a bowl of water exercise and an essay called the Hero's Journey with Water.

The Letters to Mermaids and Mermaid FAQs are easy to read and are more for mer women trying to make sense of this world. There is a novel, one of two made into screenplays: The Admiral's Mermaid and the book, How to Speak Mermaid. A lot of this material is written for incarnated mermaids but I try to go to great lengths to communicate this material for this age of the world.

Akashic Departments:

Here is a link to forty brief dialogues (about 179 pages) which relate to the akashic records. This is part humorous and part serious. See my introduction. I wrote these over the past 15 years.
